SENIOR BREAKFAST

The staff for St. Joseph's College Yearbook for 1996 has elected to dedicate this issue to S. Loretta McGrann our new Academic Dean.

Her first year in office has been one of continuous change, adjustment, frustration, and eventually, positive achievement.

Although many of the more obvious physical changes were initiated by an earlier administration, the day to day workings of the college reflect the innovated thinking and creative initiative displayed by S. Loretta.

June, 1996

Dear Class of '96,

A school in the Catholic tradition, St. Joseph's College concerns itself with the whole person and so stresses "to prepare each student for a life characterized by integrity, intellectual and spiritual values, social responsibility, and service — a life that is worthy of the College's motto, 'Esse non videri: To be and not to seem.' As I celebrated your graduation with you, heard your tributes to faculty and staff at the Senior Brunch, reflected with you on the virtue of integrity at the Baccalaureate Service, saw you spontaneously rise to acknowledge the courage and integrity of our graduation speaker, Carolyn McCarthy, I realized that you had, indeed, absorbed the values the college seeks to impart. I rejoice knowing that the knowledge you have gained, the skills you have mastered, and the wisdom you have acquired will be a source of strength throughout your lives.

The college community, then, confidently sends you forth to do "good" things for yourselves and your communities, and we look forward to seeing and hearing from you in the future. God bless you on your way!

Lovingly,

Sister Loretta McGrann
Academic Dean

EQUESTRIAN TEAM

Horsin' Around

The Equestrian team has been overlooked this past season. The team started the spring season in February and it ended on April 22. Coach Sheila Rodgers was very proud of her riders for the 1995-96 season. The season has been led by Captain Alla Linzer and Melissa Hersey.

St. Joe's has been reserved champions in two horse shows, one was at a Nassau community College. Four SJC riders qualified for the Regional Tournament: Kim Chiappino, Melissa Hersey, Shannon McElhome, and Nicole Constantini. Regionals is basically the same as making it to the playoffs in other sports. If a rider places 1st at Regionals then that individual will proceed to the Zone finals and could possibly go to the Nationals. When a rider makes it to the Regionals they are representing the entire region and their college. On April 22, St. Joe's had one rider who competed in the Zone. Melissa Hersey, who represented SJC placed sixth. The zone finals included colleges from Long Island, Delaware, Connecticut, and New Jersey.

St. Joe's finished the season placing seventh out of thirteen colleges in the region. The team will be losing senior Alla Linzer, who proved to be a very valuable asset to this year's team. The returning riders will be looked on to carry out the winning spirit of the SJC Equestrian Team. Congratulations & Good Luck Next Season!!

What an inaugural season as members of the Hudson Valley Men's Athletic Conference, SJC's Men's Soccer Team had. Not only were the Golden Eagles undefeated in the conference (5-0) but their overall record was 14-7-1. The crowning moment of the season came when the Golden Eagles defeated Pratt 5-1 to take the HVMAC title. The team scored their first goal 14 minutes into the game with Pratt on a goal.

FAITH AND FORGIVENESS

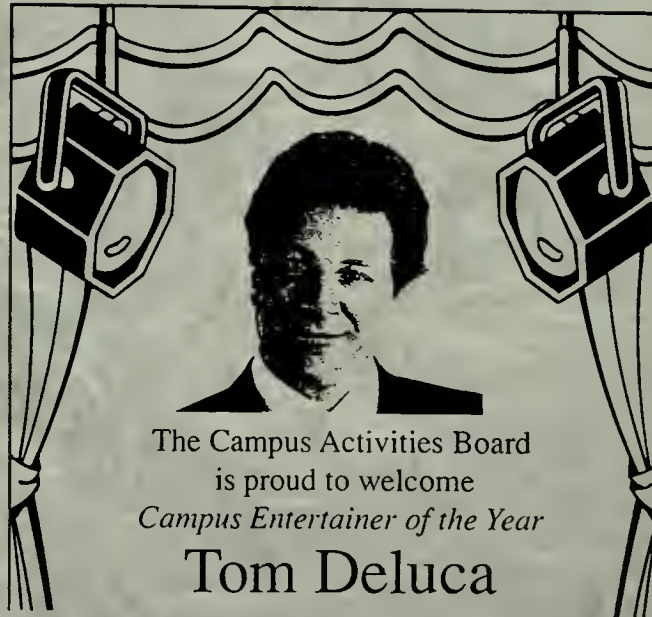

Saint Joseph's College presented Detective Steven McDonald and his family the "Esse Non Videri" award on Tuesday April 23 in the third floor conference room.

The "Esse No Videri" award is given to an individual the college believes encourages nonviolence. An individual whose response is not revenge rather an individual who seeks to reduce violence. It is easy to see why the college chose Detective Steven McDonald and his family to receive this award.

Detective McDonald was shot in 1986 in Central Park while questioning some youths about stolen bicycles. Detective McDonald was left paralyzed. He was a young man who was just starting a family. His wife was pregnant at the time of the shooting. At this most horrible time the McDonald's relied upon their deep faith. As Detective McDonald said he was not a saint and if he expected God to forgive him, he would have to forgive those responsible for his shooting. Detective McDonald quoted Dr. Martin Luther King, a pamphlet on Christian Marriage, and a letter written to him by a child. Each cited reasons why we should learn to have forgiveness in our hearts.

YOU ARE FEELING VERY SLEEPY ...

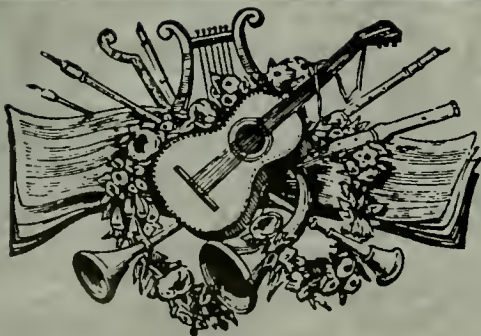

"LIFE GOES ON" STAR, CHRIS BURKE APPEARED AT ST. JOSEPH'S

Ob La Di, Ob La Da

On Monday, March 25, a musical presentation of a different mode was presented here at St. Joseph's. Chris Burke, Corky Thatcher from the TV series "Life Goes On", along with two friends, Joe and John DiMasi presented a musical variety show which revolved around the themes of friendship and uniqueness.

The show in the auditorium was attended by about 200 faculty and students. Many filtered in as they heard the hard rocking music and laughter from the audience. Everyone joined enthusiastically in the chorus of "Ob La Di, Ob La Da" as Chris and Friends sang the verses. Members of the audience came on stage to join the Imagination band as Chris did his own version of "The King". We learned to sign the verses of the song "Love is the Best Thing". On everything else, the audience joined with enthusiasm in keeping the beat and volunteering to go on stage.

Chris Burke is from Long Island and, with his friends, presents this unique program of music about inclusion, love, friendship, and uniqueness to schools throughout Long Island. When the Child Study Club heard of this presentation, they thought this would make a good program for students in the department and, in conjunction with the Child Study Department, sponsored the show. There was some concern that the program would be too juvenile for a college crowd but the 45 minute show captured the enthusiasm of the audience.

A Note From The Editors-In-Chief:

As the Co-Editors-in-Chief of the 1996 Yearbook, we would like to extend our appreciation to all those who helped to make this yearbook possible. We would like to thank Student Services, Marion Russo, Joanne Collieran, and Marcia Gaudet without whose patience and help this yearbook would never have been published. We would like to thank Joann in College Relations and the Talon staff who generously donated pictures. We would also like to thank especially Ethan Kashansky, John DeGuardi, and Marion DeTroia for their help with numerous layouts. We would like to thank Quasar Photos and our representative from Jostens Publishing, Carl Miller, for all their help. Our special thanks go out to Ralph Nofi and Ann Hansen for getting our ad campaign off to a good start, and to Lorraine Lerche for her many hours of proofreading.

Most of all we would like to thank our incredible staff, Dr. Frank Lerche, our advisor who had put up with our wacky suggestions for backgrounds, Jackie O'Connor and Kristi Bigliani for all of the typing, Tracy Kohler and Kim Benedict for all the fabulous photos, Lisa O'Kane for all of the layouts and to Brian Maker, Tina Van Zeyl, and the rest of Horizons '96 staff for all of your help! Without such a wonderful staff this book would not be possible.

Congratulations to the class of 1996!

Good luck to the class of 1997!

Thank you for the wonderful opportunity of being editors. We hope that the yearbook 1997 is even better! Thanks again to everyone!
